07/148	GMB Construction and PM Cantwell	P	14/12/2007	development of a surface water pipeline and a foul sewer pipeline respectively. These pipelines will run from the administrative boundary between Kilkenny Borough Council and Kilkenny County Council, under Lord Edward Street to its junction with Butts Green. From this junction the pipelines will then run southwards under Butts Green and the Waterbarrack Roundabout to their respective discharge points. The surface water pipeline will discharge to the Breagagh River at a point immediately southeast of the Waterbarrack Roundabout, while the foul sewer pipeline will pass under the Breagagh River and connect to the Breagagh Valley Relief Sewer on the southern side of the Breagagh River immediately north of Black Mills Street. The surface water and foul sewer pipelines will be laid by way of open trench under Lord Edward Street and by means of micro-tunnelling under Butts Green and the Waterbarrack Roundabout. A concurrent planning application will be lodged with Kilkenny County Council to connect the surface water pipeline and foul sewer pipeline, respectively, from Kilkenny Borough Council administrative boundary, under the Tullaroan Road (by open trench) to lands at Loughmacask, where they will terminate at a point approximately 50m west of the junction between Lousybush Lane and the Tullaroan Road Lord Edward Street through Granges Roundabout down Butts Green & under water barracks street
